COHEN&COHEN
CHINESE EXPORT PORCELAIN AND ORIENTAL ART

A MASSIVE PAIR OF FAMILLE ROSE VASES AND COVERS

Circa: 1740

An important pair of famille rose soldier vases and covers, each boldly enamelled around the slender body with a pair of phoenix birds beside rockwork on a grassy terrace below elaborate diaper borders. The knops as Buddhist lions in gilt.
Qianlong period circa 1740
Height 135 cm

Provenance:

Ex. Edmund de Rothschild collection