

A MASSIVE PAIR OF FAMILLE ROSE VASES AND COVERS

Circa: 1740

An important pair of famille rose soldier vases and covers, each boldly enamelled around the slender body with a pair of phoenix birds beside rockwork on a grassy terrace below elaborate diaper borders.

The knobs as Buddhist lions in gilt.

Qianlong period circa 1740

Height 135 cm

Provenance:

Ex. Edmund de Rothschild collection