

Pair of Chinese Porcelain famille rose Beakers and Saucers

Yongzheng/Qianlong period circa 1735-40

European Market

Diameter of Saucers: 5 inches; 13cm

Height of Beakers: 2¾ inches; 7cm

Priced in GB pounds sterling

£7,500

This item is located in the UK. Shipping from there is at the buyer's expense.

A pair of beakers and saucers in export eggshell porcelain painted in famille rose enamels with six panels each containing different animals, reserved on a ground of blue Y-diaper and pink fish roe.

Provenance: Collection of W Martin Hurst, (labels to both)

References: Cohen & Cohen 2018, No 6, a single beaker; Williamson 1970, plate X, another.